Agriculture Segment
Agriculture Segment 1-9/2020
Market developments – agricultural products

Agri commodities price trend¹

- Price rally on the agricultural commodities markets:
  - Lower harvest anticipated due to drought in many global growing areas, (e.g. Black Sea region) results in less willingness to part from the old harvest
  - At the same time, strong demand for feedstuff grain from China due to recovery in pig livestock

Global grain balance (excl. rice; October 2020)²

- Around 2,232 million tons (+2.6% y/y) anticipated for the global crop year 2020/21
- German grain harvest 2020 anticipated at around 42.9 million tons (-3.1% y/y) slightly under previous year’s level
- Global oil seed production of 606 million tons in 2020/21 likely to exceed the previous year by 5.0%; oilseed meal expected to be 2.6% higher y/y

Sources: 1) MATIF und CBOT exchanges; 2) USDA; * forecast 2020/21, as of October 2020
Revenues and EBIT as against the previous year

- Revenues: ∆ 19/20 EUR -364.0 million
- EBIT: ∆ 19/20 EUR +6.0 million
- Volume-induced decline in revenues partly due to restricted trading activities because of Corona (-5.4% y/y)
- Significant earnings increase; business unit benefits from price rally and can compensate for lower sales volumes through higher margins
- Catch-up effects in the speciality trade in Q3 as individual trading transactions in Q2 were delayed due to Corona
Global Produce
- NZ 2020 apple production above previous year (+6% y/y) – better fruit quality due to weather conditions
- Weak European apple harvest and emptied warehouses at the start of the season result in rising prices
- Apple prices in Germany 48% above the 5-year average in September

Input Resources
- Weak demand due to regulatory framework environment and unfavourable weather conditions
- Low energy costs lead to plunge in the price of fertilisers
- Fertiliser prices in the reporting period below previous year’s period on average: CAN (-13% y/y); urea (-9% y/y)

Agricultural Equipment
- Economic barometer slightly higher y/y
- Farmers’ planned investment volume of EUR 5.0 billion slightly lower y/y
- Investment in yard and stable equipment in decline
- New registrations of tractors in Germany up 7.7% y/y from January to September 2020

- Special effect (disposal of real estate) in the previous year fully compensated by operating result
Agriculture Segment 1-9/2020: Agri Trade & Service
Revenues and EBIT as against the previous year

- Revenues: Δ 19/20 EUR +55.2 million
- EBIT: Δ 19/20 EUR -3.8 million
- Volume-induced increase in revenues
- Slight increase in collection volumes of grain; the respective trading contracts will be taken up in the months ahead and recognised in earnings
- Earnings decline from lower trading margins and less demand for operating resources
  - Fertiliser prices under sustained pressure from low crude oil prices
  - Crop protection: weak demand, above all for herbicides due to the dry weather
- Decline in the consumption of beer leads to slump in demand for hops

Rise in earnings in the final quarter on the back of the sale of numerous plants in Europe and in the USA

Uptrend in sales from trading in PV components expected to continue

Renewable Energies: Result anticipated at the high year-earlier level.

Potential up-front buying effects for heat energy carriers (heating oil and wood pellets) due to CO₂ tax and the return to the 19% VAT rate as from 2021

Stable development expected for lubricants and fuels

Positive stimulus through the expansion of the new BayWa Mobility Solutions business (LNG fuel stations)

Conventional Energy: Adjusted for the earnings contribution from TESSOL in the previous year, high year-earlier result achieved in the business unit is likely to be exceeded.
Operational Outlook 2020
Agriculture Segment

- Price volatility is likely to persist due to the uncertainty caused by the Corona pandemic and stronger demand from China
- BAST: additional opportunities through ongoing price volatility; stable development expected for speciality trading
- Agriculture: cost of restructuring the agri-business in eastern Germany compensated by other business units in the segment
- Global Produce: sale of German apple harvest at above-average prices; greater area for cultivating apples (+4%) in New Zealand and the inclusion of Freshmax lift sales volumes; international activities also likely to benefit from Christmas business
- Low price level for operating resources and VAT increase at the start of 2021 could lead to greater stockpiling by farmers
- Agricultural Equipment: Service business likely to develop well through to the end of the year

→ Result expected to be higher than in the previous year despite the Corona crisis
High order backlog of the companies in the sector, as well as ongoing construction boom suggest continued strong demand for building materials

Positive stimulus from sustained low interest rate level and value added tax reduction

Greater investments in the home (renovation) instead of vacation (influence of Corona)

Optimisation of the online product mix and growing willingness of customers to purchase via digital channels likely to boost demand

Ongoing expansion of higher-margin own brand product range

Earnings contributions from project business in the final quarter (Schrobenhausen, Burgkirchen und Borna near Leipzig)

Further increase in earnings anticipated
